APRIL RECAP

This past month was probably the craziest yet. I finished my website, played in a pit band, released a CD, released a cover video, and played 4 gigs!

I had the pleasure of playing in the pit band for the East Central High School production of "Mamma Mia" in St. Leon, IN, with my friend Trevor and Dominic. We started practice the Monday before the weekend of the performances and played everyday for the next week. It was a huge learning curve for me. I learned how to sight read music and respond to the conductor's instructions on the spot. During the performances, we always had to keep one eye on the conductor just in case.

Since the pit band area was actually under the stage, I still have no idea how well the actors and actresses did, but I could hear every line! By the end of the week, I was exhausted, but I was really grateful for the experience.

On April 15, I played at The Boatyard at Buckeye Lake and had a good time. Afterwards, the owner explained that he also books for the Buckeye Lake Yacht Club, and we booked a few gigs for this summer. Check out my events tab on my website for more info.

On April 17, I released my first EP "Waiting on a Plane" as a CD for purchase at all of my gigs. All the feedback I've received so far has been great and I've sold almost half of them so far. If you want one, you better grab one while they last, and get it signed too!

On April 23, I played at the Vintage Market Days of West Columbus in hopes that I could make some new connections in the Columbus area. I had a great time, made a few new friends and sold a few CDs.

On April 27, My sister Justine and I released our cover music video "Walt Grace's Submarine Ride" to the public after months of work. The video is based on the story of the song "Walt Grace's Submarine Test January, 1967" by John Mayer. The video features illustrations by my sister, and music done by me. We were featured on some of the biggest John Mayer Fan Accounts on social media. Be sure to check it out below if you haven't seen it yet.

I finished the month by returning to the place where I got my live music start: the Vintage and Made Market Spring at the Round Barn event on 4/30 and 5/1. The first night was very rainy and windy, but the vendors and I made it through together. I had to close my guitar case because my tips kept blowing around everywhere! By the end of the night, I was shivering, but it was worth it to connect with people and sell some CDs. The second day, I woke up with a sore throat and was worried that I wouldn't be able to sing, but after a cup of tea, I was good to go. At the start, it was around 40 degrees, but by the end it was 70, sunny, and no wind. After I finished, I ran sound for 5th and Mulberry: a folk/country duo from Lancaster and ended the day with a big fat snow cone (as one does).

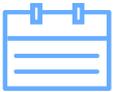

May will be a very busy month with 9 shows planned (5 Public). Lets Rock!
