AUGUST RECAP

In the month of August, I played 9 shows. Starting off the month, I had a great time playing at Buxton and the Buckeye Lake Yacht Club, the latter was for the first time in two years. I was forced inside at the Yacht Club due to weather, but the group towards the end of the night was great and gave great feedback.

The second weekend, I visited Osteria Alla Romana for the first time ever on Saturday. It's a hole in the wall Italian restaurant in Lancaster with authentic Italian food cooked by Chris, who is from Italy. If you haven't been there, you should totally check it out. Thanks to Randy and Chris for coordinating the event. The next day I squeezed a grad party into the schedule and got to pull out my new 12 string guitar for it.

The third weekend, I played at Horvath's Harbor on Friday and had a great receptive crowd as usual. The next day, I was invited to play at a party for a family in Nelsonville that I met at the Buckeye Lake Yacht Club earlier in the month. It's always great to branch out into other areas I haven't played!

Finally, I finished the month playing at the Buxton with the biggest crowd I've ever had there and I got to flex my Buxton Inn history knowledge in front of the crowd. The next day, I played two shows: one for a first responders luncheon at Alley Park and one for a backyard surprise birthday party in Downtown Lancaster.

I'm excited for September as I have another 8 shows planned: 6 solo and 2 with the band. I have leads on a couple more shows that may pop up, so keep an eye on my social media for updates!

I started my final year of college in August. I am working to get my degree in Commercial Music, with a Minor in Business, from the University of Cincinnati. I will be staying in Cincinnati for the week, then driving home for gigs on the weekends in the Central Ohio area. This means there may be more subscriber-only content coming your way in future newsletters. I recently restocked my CDs, so if you are interested, either come to a show and get one, or you can buy one on my website and it will be shipped to you.

SUBSCRIBER-ONLY CONTENT

This song demo is a comedic blues song, and was written and recorded for my Lyric Writing class at UC. It was intended to serve as a capsule of the time we're in and poke fun at current events. I hope you enjoy my bluesy rasp during the song! (Link Below)
